OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

Market sentiments remain positive with investors continue to be in the market but with guarded optimism ahead of the 2017 corporate earnings result, as well as the economic performance of the country for the whole year. However, the implementation of TRAIN continued to gain positive grounds in the Philippine economy as the government plans to pass the second round of package which includes the corporate income tax.

During the first half of January, PSEi managed to reach new record high of 8,923 levels, up by 4.3% YTD, as local investors chose to stay on the sidelines and reposition their portfolio, while the foreign investors turned buyers for a net portfolio inflow of around P141million. The local market continued to test the 9,000 level with the support of net foreign buying as well as the bullish corporate earnings outlook.

Given the 2018 forecast of 9,400 for the index, fund balancing shall be performed, while locking in gains and buying on dips whenever opportunity arises will be the key strategy to ride the market volatility.
