OTHER DISCLOSURES

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The fund has savings deposit with Bank proper amounting to US$ 313.16 which is 0.02% of the fund. The said funds is for disposition to ROP Bonds. OUTLOOK AND STRATEGY

The peso rebounded against the US$ to 48.075 as of closing of January 18 (from 48.100 a week ago), after the country's gross international reserves (GIR) posted a record high as of year-end 2020. GIR reached $109.8 billion as of end-December, increasing by 20% from the $87.839 billion posted in end-2019. Year to date, the PHP ranks 5th in the region showing a slowdown in its appreciation trajectory. Inflation on the upside on the back of cost-push in food items and global oil prices.

Forecast/Outlook: The strong PHP highlights the significant weakness of the economy at this point, which we project to improve for the year. Peso may depreciate on wider trade deficit and lengthy negative real interest rates. Improved trade prospects will mean higher demand for USD locally. Joe Biden's assumption into office, a Democrat-heavy Congress, and expansionary policies could cause a gradual climb in yieldsthat will be supportive of the USD. Vaccines prospects will rejuvenate economic activity worldwide and may cause some disinterest in PHP assets. Further improvement in economic recovery prospects to lead to some pick up in imports. Dollar remains weak worldwide, still among 2.5-year lows; Asian currencies stronger. 2021 Forecast for USD/PHP (Average) is 48.50-49.50 while USD/PHP (Year-End) is 49.00-50.00.

The following are the fund's strategy and considerations:

1. The fund is invested in long duration dollar bonds and high yielding time deposits (for liquidity).
2. The fund will continue to invest on USD Denominated Bonds - ROPs to increase the portfolio duration and sustain return through interest income.
2. It will retain the current portfolio profile and investment strategy as global markets remain volatile and the market sentiment on the rate cuts made / near zero rate target by the FED.
